Eileen Forrester, President, co-founded True North Land Surveying, Inc., with Tim Ingraham, in 2003. With a stellar track record of successfully completed projects, Eileen has cemented strong contacts at the local and regional levels.

Experienced in multiple facets of surveying, Eileen approaches each project with professionalism and a commitment to deliver the highest quality product, on time and within budget for her clients.

As project surveyor, Eileen coordinates with the client, engineer, field crew, and CAD technician to yield the results defined in the project scope.

Eileen writes clear, concise legal descriptions and prepares the accompanying drawings for all types of easements.

Well-versed in boundary and right-of-way analysis, Eileen has worked on projects that have required acquisition of additional right-of-way, and has solved right-of-way and boundary disputes.
